SPRING TRADE OF 1858

BANCROFT, LEMAN & CO., DIRECT IMPORTERS OF AND DEALERS IN DRY GOODS, King and Market Sts., Charleston, S. C. A GREEABLY to our usual custom, we again wait upon our customers, and buyers of dry goods generally, with our circular for spring trade. During the past season, we have been passing through one of the most serious and embarrassing commercial revelutions ever known, and numbers of the oldest and best firms in the land have beobliged to yield to the storm. As we keep no travelers, and do no drumming, at home or abroad, it becomes, under all these circumstances, quite necessary to say, that we are now opening, and prepared to show one of our most choice and best lected stocks of rich and elegant FRENCH, GERMAN, SWISS, AND Benefish Dry Goods. All of our own importation; together with our usual assortment of Staple and Domestic Fabrics.

We beg to repeat, that no single house in this country can offer greater attractions, so far as regards extent of stock and low prices. Our stock is always one of the largest covered by one roof in the United States. Our facilities for the importation and sale of goods are second to none, and with our present terms, we are prepared to sell | To be drawn in the city of Augusta, Ga., in public, on goods to the best buyers, as low as sold by the closest houses in the trade, in any market. Our stock is full and complete all through the year, and offers in this respect, superior inducements to the home trade to supply themselves frequently through the season, either in person or by A year ago we adopted the plan of selling goods only for cash or city acceptance, and we have had abundant evidence in this time, that it is the most satisfactory mode, both for the buyer and seller By this plan, we can sell goods at the smallest possible profit, as no risks are taken; the buyer of undoubted credit and means is not charged an ex-tra profit, to pay for the losses always made, when goods are sold upon the usual long and general All we ask of any good merchant is, that he shall look at our stock, and compare our prices with the current prices where general credits are given. We beg buyers not to be deterred from looking in upon us because they may be told we are a "Retail House." It is quite true we do one of the largest retail trades done in the U. States, upon our first floor, but it is equally true, we do a very extensive jobbing trade upon the three upper floors of our warehouse, and with the best class of buyers that visit any market. We Do No Drumming-If our stock, and the prices at which we are able to sell goods, is not sufficient inducement for buyers to visit us, we have no others to offer. Our terms are cash, with a discount of six per cent., or six months, with city acceptance. BANCROFT, LEMAN & CO., mar31 10 tr Charleston, S. C.

RELIEF FOR

HARD TIMES!

$6.150 LOTTERY. POSTPONED TO Friday, 23rd day of April, 1858!

THE undersigned are again under the disagreeable necessity of informing their friends and patrons that owing to the dull sale of tickets for the last month they are compelled to defer the drawing of their Lottery, (Relief for Hard Times) to Friday, the 23rd day of April next. At which time the Scheme will positively be drawn, whether the Tickets are all disposed of or not. They ask the indulgence of those who have aleady bought tickets for another short month, assuring them that at the expiration of that time they shall be relieved of further suspense.

For the benefit of persons who have not seen the Scheme, we give a synopsis of it: PRIZE No. 1 is a beautiful new Rosewood Piano, 7 octaves, elaborat-ly carved, Pearl Keys and inlaid with pearl, $650. No. 2 to No. 151 inclusive, are each entitled to a Ten Dollar Bill. No. 152, a likely Negro Man, 35 years of age, $1,000. No. 153, a valuable Negro Woman and her five chil-

This Scheme presents unprecedented indecements to those who wish to incress in such an enterprise, as there is not a particle of Humbug about it, and those who draw will never have cause to regret the investment.

THE PLAN OF DRAWING. Six hundred and fifteen numbers will be placed in the wheel and one hundred and fifty-three drawn out, the first drawn number taking Prize No. 1, the second, Prize No. 2, and so on until the 153 prizes are all drawn.

F" Persons at a distance who wish to invest in this splendid Scheme can be accommodated with Tickets by inclosing $10 to the undersigned.

Lists of the drawing will be furnished the Columbus, Ga., March 30 1858
